

This interesting book is an enlightening journey into the world of Chronometers with remarks from the renowned authors Parkinson and Frodsham. The book was first published in 1832, with the aim of providing a simple and clear history of the Chronometer and its uses by the distinguished navigators of the time Captains Ross, Parry, Sabine, King, Lyon and Foster. Writing with authority, their descriptions are clear, simple and enjoyable to every horology enthusiast. Papillon Publishers has fully digitalised all the images and restored them to as high a standard as possible given the original scan quality. The publication includes an informative history of the Chronometer as well as correspondent letters between Frodsham, Parkinson and a range historically significant sea captains: HISTORY OF CHRONOMETERS.
