Everybody knows who Quinn Avery is. Shes the smart, calm, responsible Avery sister, the one whos kept it together in spite of all thats happened since their mom lost her job. But when the family house goes up for sale and Quinn faces the prospect of losing the home she loves, something snaps inside her, and a new, wild, reckless Quinn emerges. Soon Quinns lying, sneaking out, and partying with a brand-new crowd. When Quinn adds ditching her best friends and kissing the wrong boys including her sisters boyfriend and her own piano teacher to her list of crimes, she may finally have gone too far. Can Quinn find her way back to the family that needs her and the only boy shes ever loved?
