

The Evil Dead #4 (Dark Horse Comics)

From Dark Horse Comics. I didn't know it then, but there had been a change in strategy. Phase one had been a frontal assault ... phase two was simpler ... scare the living bejesus out of me. Ash finds himself fighting both the cabin itself and terrifying, possessed versions of his companions. Will the curious power of the Book of the Dead (which started this whole violent mess) actually hold the key to his survival? In the final chapter of this adaptation and expansion of the classic Sam Raimi film, more disgusting, demonic bile will fly before Ash's night is over! Take a trip down memory lane to celebrate the first time The Evil Dead scared the pants off you or visit this evil cabin for the first time and enjoy. This is the original gore-fest that started it all and the comic-book series is peppered with moments of pure terror that weren't in the original film! Relive the original thrilling Evil Dead experience in the only officially authorized EXPANSION of Bruce Campbell and Sam Raimi's classic film, featuring gorgeous-and-gory painted interiors by John Bolton (Army of Darkness, Harlequin Valentine) and some of the best new Ash quips ever-as penned by legendary scribe Mark Verheiden!
