Excerpt from 59 of 86: Letters Written to the Lebanon Courier During the Summer of 1886 After wielding the journalistic pen sufficiently long to render an abbreviated account of the, to us, 59 memorable days of the year 1886, we cheerfully abandon the same with the hope that it may in the future fall into more competent hands. - Literary fame, save but one exception, has never been our aspiration. In years gone by, when but nine summers were ours, a childish romance with the euphonious(!) title of Kitty Bundle commenced and ended as we then thought our literary work. Unexpectedly 59 of 86 courageously assumes a book attitude. It comes to you in the form of a gift, hence treat its shortcomings with magnanimity.
