

Ian Fleming Introduces Jamaica

Fifteen chapters on Jamaica, beginning with Introducing Jamaica by Commander Ian Fleming, the creator of James Bond, who wrote his thrillers from his Jamaican home. Lavishly illustrated with color photographs, this nearly flawless copy opens immediately to page 67, opposite a photograph of a nude young woman resting on a sandy shore. Endpapers are detailed maps of the island. Chapters include Dialect, Magic and Religion, The Great Houses of Jamaica, Natural History, Birds, Contemporary Jamaican Art, Skin Diving, Some Stories about Stamps, and The Cooking in Paradise by Poppy Cannon. First published October 1963 by Andre Deutsch, Ltd., London. Printed in Hong Kong.
