The Times has announced, much to Berties astonishment, the news of his engagement to the beautiful Bobbie Wickham. But worse is to come....Uncle Toms antique silver cow-creamer has gone missing; Kipper Herring has libelled his and Berties former headmaster; leading British psychiatrist Sir Roderick Glossop is posing as a butler; and Aunt Dahlias masterly French chef, Anatole, is once again becoming a pawn in a terrible power struggle. By a rare stroke of genius, Bertie finds a solution; he recalls Jeeves from his annual holiday, and the incomparable manservant sorts everybody out in his usual imperturbable style.
