

The Winds of Kedem

Revenge and retribution in the Middle East. Only one man can save Israel from a nuclear holocaust... Mossad agent David Katri is torn between duty to country and to conscience as he battles to prevent an Arab terrorist plot to destroy the House of Israel. His implacable foe, Rashid Sedawi, is determined to bring about the end of the Jewish state. The action switches between Mossad headquarters in Tel Aviv and the Syrian Desert, between the teeming Shiite suburbs of Beirut and Pakistans secret nuclear base near Islamabad. The streets of Stockholm and snow-bound Vienna also become soaked in blood as Katri finds himself tangled in a web of deceit spun by Arabs, Christians and Jews. A web where even love has a price. The Winds of Kedem is a heart-stopping tale of vengeance, courage, love and betrayal ... REVIEWS ...the nightmarish plot, in which an Israeli agent battles against extremists aiming to set off a nuclear holocaust, is nail-biting, edge-of-the-seat stuff.
