

“Attend” a Full-Length LSAT Review Course for the price of a Book! This LSAT review provides a unique, professor-led, simulated classroom experience taught by Professor David Scalise, JD, University of San Francisco, who has helped more than 40,000 students prepare for the LSAT over the past 20 years. The classroom simulation reflects the motivating, inspirational, and entertaining teaching style of this award winning professor. Professor Dave instills confidence with his comprehensive coverage of all three academic sections on the exam and the writing sample. His insightful lectures with humorous quotes, detailed concept analysis, creative exercises, and timed test sections are all designed to reduce exam anxiety and maximize your LSAT score. The easy-to-use workbook format with liberal use of white space and lay-flat binding provides easy access to the review materials. The 25 voice tracks on the CD ROM, featuring the expertise of Professor Dave, provide academic support and valuable insight on law school applications, the law school experience, and careers in law. The CD ROM also includes three full length exams with answers and explanations. The total package contains 675 pages. Be prepared! “Attend” an LSAT review course taught by the most experienced instructor in the country!
