

Pimp Your Pumps

Are you bored with your boots, tired of your trainers and embarrassed by your boring black pumps? If you can't afford to buy personalised sports footwear or sparkly party shoes, don't despair, you can do it yourself! Charlotte Liddle will show you how, with 35 ways to make your feet more fun. There are removable fixes, such as clip-on flowers or ideas for replacing your laces with something more interesting, in case you are not allowed to make any permanent changes. If you have an old pair of shoes that don't matter, then you can go further, applying fabric paint, sequins, or a collage of pictures. There's even a pair of cute monster slippers you can make yourself. Every project has clear instructions, and artworks to show you exactly what to do, as well as tips on any crafty skills you will need.
