

Twin Sisters Twin Sisters is a story based on real events and characters, Milagros and Cristina Duran Alfaro. This story is full of adventure and motivation for those children and youth who have talents in different areas of the arts. This story tells how Grandpa Felix discovered the talents of his twin granddaughters and taught them to love painting and drawing. He taught in their primary years to feel the breath of nature and be part of it. To see the beauty that only an artist can say. To see the morning dew on the leaves and flowers sprout on green meadow. Grandpa taught Felix capture with a brush or pencil on a canvas or paper notebook that feeling. Grandpa Felix used the same motivation many years ago with his daughters: Milagros and Carlota Alfaro, who years later became two distinguished Puerto Rican designers couturier. He wanted to leave his legacy in his twin granddaughters. When the twins grew up, they went to work at the Academy of Carlota Alfaro where there also learned to design and then shared their knowledge acquired offering couture classes. This inspiring story is based on real personalities. Combine teaching and learning in our children, to discover and develop their talents. The author provides an email address for her readers to share their talents they have or what they want to do with their talents when they become adults.
