Excerpt from Valhalla: A Novel
For me kind nature wakes her genial powr, Suckles each herb, and spreads out evry flour; Annual for me the grape, the rose renew The juice nectarious, and the balmy dew; For me, the mine a thousand treasures brings; For me, health gushes from a thousand springs; Seas roll to waft me, suns to light me rise; My foot-stool earth, my canopy the skies. But errs not nature from this gracious end, From burning suns when livid deaths descend, When earth-quakes swallow, or when tempests sweep Towns to one grave, whole nations to the deep? No (tis replyd), the first almighty cause Acts not by partial, but by general laws; Th exceptions few, some change since all began; And what created perfect? - why then man? About the Publisher
