

At the dawn of the twenty-first century Adam Kellas finds himself hurled on a journey between continents and cultures. In his quest from the war-torn mountains of Afghanistan to the elegant dinner tables of north London and then the marshlands of the American South, only the memory of the beautiful, elusive Astrid offers the possibility of hope. With all the explosive drama of The People's Act of Love, this is a spellbinding tale of folly and the pursuit of love from one of today's most talented and visionary writers.

The Garden Party: and Other Stories, Sacred Transgressions, The Leopards Wife, Spandex #5, Essex Poison (The County Guides), Sterling Silver Flatware for Dining Elegance, The Untelling, Doctor Who Classics #2 : The Iron Legion (IDW Publishing), Teaching Science Fiction (Teaching the New English), Adventures of Pinocchio - The Original Classic Edition,
